

One Year Suit Provision

Suit Against Us. No action shall be brought unless there has been full compliance with all of the policy provisions and the action is started within one year after inception of the loss or damage.

This provision is included in most insurance policies, although some of the specific wording may vary depending upon the insurance company and/or policy of insurance.